

The Perspective of Justice - Free and Responsible

The theme of the liturgy is the law of God.

God's law is just, it demands careful observation, and it is the key to life on earth. It is not a matter of clinging to what is human tradition but rather of practicing justice: "He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord."

The Pharisees misunderstood what the law was all about. For them obeying the law meant such things as "scrupulously washing their hands and the washing of cups and jugs and ket-tles."

James, on the other hand, understood the meaning of the law of God, and he provides us with a pointed definition of the religion of Yahweh/Jesus: "Looking after orphans and widows in their distress and keeping oneself unspotted by the world make for pure worship without stain before our God and Father."

The law of God forbids all those things that set people against each other: theft, murder, greed, etc. The positive command of God's law is "to serve God in each other," to walk blamelessly, do justice, and to not harm one's fellow-man.

The codes of Israel reflect the norms of the covenant: reciprocal responsibility, mercy, and truthfulness. They embody a life in freedom from oppression: worship of the One God, rejection of idolatry, mutual respect among people, care and protection for every member of the social body. Being free and being a co-responsible community are God's intentions for us.

World Day of Prayer for Creation & Season of Creation

Pope Francis has established the 1st of September as the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, encouraging the Catholic community around the world to pray for our common home.

The day is inspired by Pope Francis' landmark encyclical Laudato Si', which calls on "every person living on this planet" to care for our shared Earth.

He calls us all to celebrate this opportune moment to "reaffirm [our] personal vocation to be stewards of creation, to thank God for the wonderful handiwork which he has entrusted to our care, and to implore his help for the protection of creation, as well as his pardon for the sins committed against the world in which we live."

Join Pope Francis and Christians around the globe in praying for and taking action for our common home on the 1st of September and during the Season of Creation (1 Sept – 4 Oct). For more information, resources, and activities in the Diocese of Parramatta, visit parracatholic.org/seasonofcreation

A Poem to Sit With

Christ Our Earth

We may learn that we are rooted in Christ that regardless the atmosphere regardless our stunted growth regardless our daily dyings
we have the potential
we are the potential to bloom
because of Christ our earth because of Christ our atmosphere
we are the seed from the Father's hand
we are the breaking shell sending down roots
reaching our shoots up stretching toward our Maker.

J. Janda

THE FIRST READING

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

This people honours me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

Lord,
dwell in our hearts.
When we tend the sick,
feed the hungry,
make clean your planet,
be within us –
so that all that we do,
we do in your love.
Stretch us, please.
Let us reach out to our neighbour
when we are too busy or much too tired.
Let the world know we are your disciples not because our hands are clean,
but because they are dirty
with the mark of all your children.

Anne Osdieck

Today's Readings: Deut 4:1-2, 6-8; James 1:17-18, 21-22, 27; Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

Entrance Antiphon: Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long. O Lord, you are good and forgiving, full of mercy to all who call to you.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 14:2-5

R. The just will live in the presence of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The Father gave us birth by his message of truth, that we might be as the first fruits of his creation. Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon: How great is the goodness, Lord, that you keep for those who fear you.

Next Week: Is 35:4-7; James 2:1-5; Mk 7:31-37

Spring is in the Air

For Flowers That Bloom

For flowers that bloom about our feet;
For tender grass, so fresh, so sweet;
For song of bird, and hum of bee;
For all things fair we hear or see,
Father in heaven, we thank Thee!

For blue of stream and blue of sky;
For pleasant shade of branches high;
For fragrant air and cooling breeze;
For beauty of the blooming trees,
Father in heaven, we thank Thee!

- Ralph Waldo Emerson

"My favourite day", said Pooh.*

SOCIAL JUSTICE SUNDAY

29 August 2021

The Australian Bishops' Social Justice Statement, Cry of the Earth, Cry of the Poor, invites us to join in responding to Pope Francis' invitation to take a seven-year journey towards total ecological sustainability guided by seven Laudato Si' Goals. These Goals are: response to the cry of the earth; response to the cry of the poor; ecological economics; sustainable lifestyles; ecological spirituality; ecological education; and community engagement and participatory action.

The Social Justice Statement 2021-22 provides theological foundations to ground and inspire efforts to care for creation while responding to the needs of the disadvantaged and excluded. The Statement reflects on creation in and through the Trinity; the sacramentality of all created things; the wonder and beauty available to the contemplative eye; and the need for conversion and change of life.

The Statement especially encourages Catholic families, communities and organisations to: listen to the First Nations; reflect on the theological foundations offered in Cry of the Earth, Cry of the Poor; and plan their next steps towards the Laudato Si' Goals.
