34th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday is the Thirty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time and the last week of the liturgical year. As always on this last Sunday, we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. The readings remind us of God's faithfulness to us as he promises to shepherd the people of Israel. In Luke's Gospel we are taken to the crucifixion and Jesus being mocked as "King of the Jews." The man crucified next to him asks Jesus to remember him when he gets into his Kingdom. Jesus replies, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Monday is the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Cecilia, virgin and martyr. Thursday is the Memorial of Saint Andrew Dũng-Lac, priest and martyr, and his companions, martyrs.

In this last week of Ordinary Time, we have readings from Luke's Gospel, which grow more explicit about the end time as Jesus and his disciples draw closer to Jerusalem. Jesus watches rich people make donations at the Temple but when a poor widow drops in two small coins he notes that her donation is far larger for "she, from her poverty, has offered her whole livelihood." He speaks of the end time, and cautions that many will claim to come in Jesus' name. "Do not follow them!" He says that the cost of following him may be high, and may lead to trials and divisions in families. But, he says, "By your perseverance you will secure your lives." In a dramatic look at the end time, Jesus says, "And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory." Just as we know what the signs in nature tell us - fig trees in bloom announce the coming of summer - Jesus wants us to be aware of the signs of the coming of the Kingdom: "when you see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of God is near." Finally, he tells us not to let our "hearts be drowsy" but to be vigilant at all times and to pray for the strength we will need for the "tribulations that are imminent and to stand before the Son of Man."

The First Sunday of Advent begins a new liturgical year and the beginning of a season filled with the riches of our scripture readings. For the next few weeks, the main focus will be on the first reading, with the gospel chosen to accompany it. Isaiah offers the people of God a promise of peace: "They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks." Matthew's gospel is the story of Noah and a caution from Jesus to prepare "for an hour you do not expect."

St Thomas Aquinas Parish Christmas Giving Tree

This year, our parish is again supporting Wimlah Women's Refuge Outreach and Women's Domestic Violence Court Advocacy Service, a specialist domestic violence service located in the Blue Mountains.

Wimlah offers a Domestic Violence Support Group, Family Law Support Group and residential crises accommodation for women and children.

We would love for our parishioners to wrap a gift for a woman and a child (we will have exact ages for you soon) to open at Christmas, who might otherwise not be able to open anything.

Please leave this gift under our Christmas Tree and it will be hand delivered the Wednesday prior to Christmas Day to the women and children who will be relying on the refuge this year for a safe haven - a place to call home.

THE GOSPEL

Luke 23:35-43

Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.

Christ,
with your last breath
you cared for the lost and lonely.

Please
remember us.
Call all of us to mind,
each and every one of us,
when you come into your kingdom!
We entrust ourselves, with Dismas, to you,
to your infinite love and mercy, and like him, we ask simply:
remember us.

Anne Osdieck

THE FIRST READING

2 Samuel 5:1-3

You shall shepherd my people, Israel.

Guide us into your kingdom, O Jesus.
Put us on the path of peace.

Raise us as we fall. And hold us awhile.
If we run off to a wild, dark place,
then please pull us back.

Watch over us with love.

And shepherd others through us.

Anne Osdieck
